

968th AEC Meeting 5. Incident Concerning Japanese Fishing Vessel /
(See minutes of Meeting 967)

^c
3-12-54 The General Manager and other members of the staff presented to the Commission the most recent information concerning injuries incurred by the crew of a Japanese fishing vessel subsequent to the first detonation in the present series. Mr. Hall reported on actions which the State Department proposes to take concerning this matter and Colonel Huston reported on the first meeting of an interdepartmental committee, established in accordance with the Commission's request at Meeting 967.

The Commissioners also discussed questions concerning the evacuation of natives from islands in the Marshall Group where significant fall-out occurred. (See minutes of Meeting 966).
