This over-all report on the status of U. S. programs for national security as of December 31, 1953, is transmitted for the information of the National Security Council. Pursuant to Presidential direction, the several parts and annexes have been prepared by the responsible departments and agencies with the assistance of the NSC Special Staff. These status reports are prepared semi-annually; previous ones were issued as NSC 161, NSC 142, and NSC 135.

NSC 5407 will consist of ^{one} two volumes. Enclosed herewith are a Table of Contents, Parts 4 and 6, and Annex A. The remaining parts, including a second set of covers, will be transmitted upon their receipt.

Each program is classified separately and may be handled separately in accordance with its highest security classification. Each copy of NSC 5407 as a whole, however, should be handled with special security precautions and limited in circulation on a need-to-know basis.
