

CONFIDENTIAL

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON ATOMIC ENERGY

CABINET ROOM

JANUARY 25, 1950

- I Opening Statement
 Respons:  Secretary of State
 Secretary of Defense
- II Nature of the Conference
 Importance of the Conference
 (a) Russian Problem, Atomic Energy and Disarmament Secretary of State
 (b) Relation to Foreign Policy Secretary of State
 (c) Relation to Military Policy Secretary of State
- III Effects of Nuclear Weapons and the Nature of the Bomb Secretary of State
- IV Feasibility of Atomic Bomb
 (Materials, Design, Storage) and Relation of Atomic Energy to Radiological Industry, Agriculture and Research Secretary of State
- V Need for State and Federal Initiative in Stimulating Atomic Energy Secretary of State

VI

Federal Activities In Support of Peace and Liberty (H.R. 1000)

- (A) Medical Supplies and Personnel Secretary Flemming
- (B) Food Supplies Assistant Secretary Morse
- (C) House Staffing Training Medical and Marine
- (D) Educational Information General Douglas

VII

Elements of State Program for Federal Education

Secretary Rockefeller

VIII

Confidence in Government (H.R. 1000)

*** **

Special Committee on Civil Defense of the Governors' Conference
Nelson A. Rockefeller, New York, Chairman

Edmund G. Brown, California                      Wendell P. Hall, Georgia                      North Carolina
George D. Clyde, Utah                                  W. Verne Williams, Florida

Executive

J. Caleb Boggs, Delaware, Chairman, Executive Board of the Conference
Brevard Cribfield, Secretary of the Conference