

AGENDA

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON ATOMIC ENERGY

CABINET ROOM

JANUARY 11, 1960

- |     |  |   |  |
|-----|--|---|--|
| I   | Opening StatementResponse  |  | Mr. [Name] andMr. [Name]                                   |
| II  | Nature of the ProblemImportance of Government Action(a) Russian Posture for Civilianand Civil Defense(b) Relation to Foreign Policy(c) Relation to Military Policy |   | Mr. [Name]Secretary of StateSecretary of State |
| III | Effects of Nuclear Warthe Nature of Fallout  |   | Mr. [Name]   |
| IV  | Feasibility of Fuel Production(Materials, Design, Storage) andRelation of Fuel Production toRadiological Defense, Accumulation,and Recovery  |   | Mr. [Name]   |
| V   | Need for State and Federal Actionin Stimulating Industrial Action  |   | Mr. [Name]   |

VI

Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice

(a) Medical Supply (to be prepared)

Secretary Flemming

(b) Food supplies

Assistant Secretary Morse

(c) Bureau of Health Statistics

Mr. Thomas Martin

(d) Evaluation of intelligence

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover

VII

Home Office, State Department
Federal Executive

Secretary of State

VIII

Department of Agriculture

APR 1950

Special Committee on Civil Defense of the Government Conference
Nelson A. Rockefeller, New York, Chairman

Edmund G. Brown, California
George D. Clyde, Utah

J. Caleb Boggs, Delaware
Brevard Critchfield, Secretary

Washington

J. Caleb Boggs, Delaware, Chairman, Federal Government Conference
Brevard Critchfield, Secretary, Federal Government Conference