OBSERVERS AT OPERATION REDWING

SYMBOL: FEA

1. You will recall that at Meeting 1175 on February 10, 1956, during discussion of observer attendance at Operation REDWING, the Commissioners requested that the forthcoming paper on this subject include a statement on whether the presence of foreign military observers at the test would constitute communication of Restricted Data.

2. In addition, the Commissioners requested a determination on whether steps should be taken to legalize the attendance of Canadian observers at Operation TEAPOT.

3. You are requested to take the action necessary to implement these requests.
