the latter part of March at the earliest.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: That means we are going to be the last ones again this year?

MR. McCARTHY: Practically, yes, sir. Hearings are under way now on Interior and some of the other large departments, but they are not moving too rapidly.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: Thank you.

MR. FIELDS: Information Services.

MR. THOMPSON: We have nothing to add to the report. The Commissioners may have some questions.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: Is the 202 hearing your department?

MR. FIELDS: He is in it partly. We have that material for discussion tomorrow afternoon. Actually there is a letter on that which just came around which set the time firmly on the 202 for the middle of February.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: I note you draft an announcement for the return of the Rongelap natives. The Commission has not decided this so guard this carefully.

MR. THOMPSON: Yes, sir.

COMMISSIONER LIBBY: Thank you.

MR. FIELDS: Classification.

MR. MARSHALL: I have nothing to add to the report that is written. I would be glad to answer any questions.
